This is a complex grid-based puzzle, likely a crossword or logic puzzle, with a grid of approximately 60 columns and 60 rows. The grid is divided into four quadrants by a vertical line at column 30 and a horizontal line at row 30. The puzzle contains various symbols and colors:

- Black cells: Located in the top-left corner, forming a triangular shape.
- Blue dots: Scattered throughout the grid, often marking the start of a sequence.
- Red 'X' marks: Several instances, often marking specific points of interest.
- Yellow and orange diagonal lines: Used to highlight certain paths or sequences.
- Green and blue circles: Small markers placed within the grid.
- Numbers: Some cells contain numbers, possibly indicating the length of a sequence.
- Other symbols: Includes symbols like 'X', 'Z', '+', '#', and various geometric shapes.

The puzzle is presented on a page with a header indicating it is page 6 of a document titled "Holiday chores"/ "Праздничные хлопоты" by Eva & Morra. The page number 6 is also indicated in the top left corner. The grid is numbered 50, 60, 70, and 80 at the top, and 10, 20, 30, 40, 50, and 60 on the left side.

This is a complex grid-based puzzle, likely a crossword or a logic puzzle. The grid is approximately 120 rows by 80 columns. The top-left corner has a black triangle pointing down, and the bottom-left corner has a black triangle pointing up. The grid contains various symbols including numbers (50, 60, 70, 80, 90, 100, 110, 120), letters (a, m, z, +, ~), and geometric shapes (circles, squares, diamonds, triangles). Some cells are shaded in grey, while others are white. The puzzle is divided into several sections by thick lines. The symbols and numbers are arranged in a way that suggests a specific logic or pattern to be deciphered.
